

Work Shop

It is a report on the workshop which host in the IBDP visual art studio on October 26 evening .Mr.Asifudin is one of the Visual art facilitator who engages in the PYP Program in DRS International School and, this creative program Head up by Mr.Asif Uddin. In fact this creative endeavor or the innovative activity itself is of one of the learning profiles of IB student, sharing .Well, Past one month back Mr.Asifudin attended a creative workshop organized by IBO at New Delhi and he got an opportunity to Liaise with A variety of creative practice and practitioners .Objective of this workshop is a reflection of his New Delhi workshop experience to the visual art students who recently enroll in the visual art program .In fact every one must have seen the collage and abstract painting . This workshop deal wit a new approach towards the collage and abstraction New approach of collage is a collective creative activity this new approach on visual given a innovative experience to the visual art students.

